The Dime Bank Hires Tom Regenski as an Investment Adviser Representative

The Dime Bank Board of Directors along with Gary C. Beilman, president and chief executive officer, are pleased to announce the addition of Thomas G. Regenski as an investment adviser representative in their Wealth Management Department.

Regenski graduated from the University of Scranton where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management. He brings over 20 years of management experience with exemplary customer service skills in the health care, technology, and most recently, the hospitality industry. Regenski is a registered representative of Cetera Advisor Networks, LLC and is life, accident and health insurance licensed.

As a full service brokerage operation, The Dime Bank's Wealth Management Department offers the following services and products for individuals and businesses: stocks, bonds, mutual funds, money management, annuities, insurance products, advisory services, retirement and educational savings plans, and financial and estate planning services.

Joe Adams, senior vice president at The Dime Bank states, "We are extremely excited about the addition of Tom to our team. With over 20 years of experience in sales and customer service, Tom brings superior service standards to assist in bringing the utmost level of service to The Dime Bank's wealth management clients. Our experienced staff and team approach to investment portfolio management, with Tom as an additional point of contact for our clients, expands The Dime Bank's ability to bring one-stop financial services to our region."

Tom is actively involved in the community as a board member of the Chamber of the Northern Poconos, past president of the board of the Pike County United Way, and is co-owner of Gresham's Chop House along with his two brothers, Paul and Joe. He resides in Greentown with his wife Kathy and their twelve year old son, Evan.

The Dime Bank has been helping customers meet their financial needs since 1905. Serving its primary market of Northeastern Pennsylvania, the bank offers a full array of financial services and solutions. Community banking yields community benefits.
