The Dime Bank recently promoted Arlyce Degnan to the rank of assistant vice president. Degnan is responsible for inspiring the Lake Region team in Hawley, PA to provide customers and area residents with expert financial advice in a confidential manner. She is responsible for developing and maintaining residential, retail, and commercial customer relationships. She also oversees the branch operation.

Arlyce Degnan joined the Lake Region team of The Dime Bank last year as a community banking manager with an extensive banking background as a senior financial specialist. She has been in the financial services arena for over thirty years with experience in many positions within the industry ranging from deposit gathering and loan origination to investments and branch management. Degnan has extensive training in mortgage and small business lending, as well as IRAs and has successfully completed her education at the American Institute of Banking. She holds licenses in financial investment series 6 and 63 and is licensed to sell life and health insurance.

Gary C. Beilman, president and chief executive officer of The Dime Bank stated, "Arlyce has a genuine enthusiasm for leading her team to achieve results through building solid relationships in the community. Arlyce possesses excellent interpersonal and communication skills along with a deep knowledge of financial products and banking regulations. We are very pleased to have such an outstanding employee within our Dime Bank family and to be able to reward her dedication with this promotion. Arlyce genuinely cares about her employees and it shows in all she does. This motivates the entire group to bring the best financial assistance to customers each and every day."

Degnan lives in Milford with her husband, Richard. They have two children, Richard II and Rachael. She is a member of St. Vincent Church in Dingmans Ferry and volunteers with the National Park Service and the Center for Developmental Disabilities.
