The Dime Bank promotes Pam Kerber to Officer Status

The Dime Bank has recently promoted Pamela Kerber to the rank of assistant vice president. Pam works with her Damascus branch team to provide customers and area residents with a knowledgeable and secure environment to discuss and conduct their banking needs. As a branch manager Pam is responsible for supervising staff, originating loans, opening new deposit accounts, and overseeing her branch operations including general banking functions and building management.

Pam Kerber joined The Dime Bank as a part time teller in June 1995 at the Damascus branch. With nearly twenty years at The Dime Bank, Kerber has held various positions. After her initial teller position, she transferred to our bookkeeping department as a full time staff member. Kerber then joined the Damascus team again as a full time teller. In 2000, she was promoted to senior teller and two years later took the position of a customer service representative. Kerber was promoted to the position of Damascus assistant branch manager in 2007. Over the course of her career, Kerber has completed numerous classes with the American Institute of Banking and holds financial diplomas in Bank Operations, Consumer Lending, Mortgage Lending, and Commercial Lending. In 2012 she graduated from the PBA School of Banking. Kerber is also a graduate of 2014 class of Leadership Wayne. She is a member of the Damascus Manor United Methodist Church and the Damascus Manor Community Center.
