

Simone Palmer Honored as Pike County Chamber Director of the Year

Wednesday, November 05, 2014 - The Dime Bank / Deborah Unflat

Congratulations go out to Simone Palmer, assistant branch manager Dingmans Ferry, for being awarded Director of the Year by the Pike County Chamber of Commerce. Simone accepted a position with the Pike County Chamber board of directors in 2010 and has been involved with several committees including By-Laws, Women in Business, and Executive Committee. Simone enjoys meeting new people and networking and being a part of the Chamber has allowed her to give back to the community and help promote the local business economy. Simone stated, "It is a pleasure to volunteer my time for community events as serving the community is very important to me. My Chamber colleagues are all so nice and I truly enjoy the time I spend working with them and everyone in the community."

Simone joined The Dime Bank in 2004. Her desire to serve the community is evident in all she does for her customers and coworkers. We invite you to visit Simone at our Dingmans Ferry branch on Route 739 to experience her excellent customer service and infectious smile. Thank you, Simone, for all you do at The Dime Bank and in our communities!
