

Cindy Burdick and Stacy Gager Recognized by PA Bankers Association

Honesdale PA / May 2, 2017 /
Congratulations go out to two dedicated Dime Bankers who were honored at the Pennsylvania Bankers Association (PA Bankers) Group 3 meeting held on April 6.

Cynthia D. Burdick, The Dime Bank assistant vice president, bank secrecy act officer, was recognized for 40 years of service in the banking industry. The 40-Year Club consists of regular members of PA Bankers who have completed 40 or more years of service in Pennsylvania's banking industry. Burdick coordinates, manages, and monitors all aspects of Bank Secrecy Act/Anti Money Laundering Act, Office of Foreign Asset Control compliance and identity theft compliance as well as supervises the bank's fraud specialist and oversees fraud investigations.

Stacy L. Gager, The Dime Bank deposit operations supervisor, was recognized for achieving honor student status from the 2016 PA Bankers School of Banking. Honor students are selected due to outstanding work during school and on a final examination. The PA Bankers School of Banking provides students with a broad base of knowledge of the financial services industry, which can be applied in a practical manner. Topics taught at this 100-level school include leadership, sales and marketing, bank environment and finance. Gager is responsible for directly coordinating the bank's deposit operations and supervising the deposit operations personnel in order to efficiently process deposit accounts and associated transactions.

President and Chief Executive Officer Gary C. Beilman stated, "One of the many initiatives that we provide to enhance the professionalism of our staff is that of education and growth within our institution We appreciate Cindy and Stacy's loyalty and hard work."
