

2015 Scholarship Recipients

Honesdale, PA /June 30, 2015 / The Dime Bank has awarded scholarships to four students from Wayne Highlands, Wallenpaupack, Delaware Valley, and Carbondale school districts based on their academic and leadership capabilities. To be eligible for The Dime Bank Directors Award the students must be furthering their education in the field of business, economics, finance, management, or accounting. Each graduating senior was presented with a check for $1,250.00 to attend the college of their choice. Gary C. Beilman, president and chief executive officer stated, "Congratulations to the award recipients. We are happy to support future leaders with this educational assistance."
