

The Dime Bank promotes Irene Selvaggi, Training Manager

Honesdale, PA/ June 2, 2016/ The board of directors and senior management team at The Dime Bank are pleased to announce that Irene J. Selvaggi has been promoted to the rank of assistant vice president.

Gary C. Beilman, president and chief executive officer of The Dime Bank stated, “In her position, Irene is one of the people with whom many of our new hires interact with almost immediately. Moreover, she continually strives to promote the overall education levels and industry exposure for our entire staff. Most recently, Irene has been an integral part of both the rollout, and the success, of our introduction of ‘KASASA’ to the community. Throughout all of her efforts, Irene conducts herself in a kind, caring, and concerned professional manner. We are very fortunate to have Irene on The Dime Bank officer team.”

Irene Selvaggi has an extensive banking background, having started her career in banking in 1991, working as a teller at two former local banks. She joined The Dime Bank in August of 1997 as a full time teller in Hawley. Selvaggi was promoted to the position of head teller of the Honesdale branch in October of 2004. She took over as The Dime Bank training manager in August of 2006, a newly created role at that time. Selvaggi earned an associate degree in Banking and Finance from Lackawanna College, graduating with high honors- summa cum laude. Selvaggi has also received various banking diplomas through the Pennsylvania Bankers Association and a certificate of achievement for completing the Dale Carnegie coursework.

As assistant vice president in charge of training, Selvaggi is responsible for identifying, developing, and implementing a training program which provides employees with the knowledge, skills, and development to meet the strategic goals, both long and short-term, of The Dime Bank. Selvaggi lives in Honesdale with her husband, Mike. Together they have three children, Michael, Matthew, Stephen and three grandsons Devon, Troy, and Nicholas.

The Dime Bank has been helping customers meet their financial needs since 1905. Serving its primary market of Northeast Pennsylvania, the bank offers a full array of financial services and solutions. Community banking yields community benefits. For more information on The Dime Bank, visit www.thedimebank.com. Member FDIC.

Source: The Dime Bank / June 2, 2016 / Deborah Unflat