

The Dime Bank Hires Jeremy Patten to Grow Wealth Management Division

Honesdale, PA/ May 25, 2016/ The Dime Bank Board of Directors along with Gary C. Beilman, president and chief executive officer, are pleased to announce the addition of Jeremy Patten as a registered representative in their Wealth Management Department.

Patten graduated from the John Jay College of Criminal Justice where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree. He brings over ten years of management and outstanding client financial services experience to The Dime Bank. Patten has been in the financial services arena for over six years providing investment strategies for clients by accurately assessing client's present and future needs. He is a registered representative of Cetera Advisor Networks LLC and holds his Series 6 and 63 securities registrations in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey and has a life, accident, and health insurance license. Patten will be responsible for enhancing The Dime Bank's wealth management division customer relationships by providing customized solutions to help meet clients' needs through the sale of retail non-deposit investment and insurance products.

As a full service brokerage operation, The Dime Bank's Wealth Management Division offers the following services and products through Cetera Advisor Networks for individuals and businesses: stocks, bonds, mutual funds, money management, annuities, insurance products, advisory services, retirement and educational savings plans, and financial and estate planning services.

Jim Gardas, vice president at The Dime Bank states, "We are very enthused about the addition of Jeremy to our team. Jeremy's ability to accurately assess each client's goals and objectives will greatly expand The Dime Bank's ability to help meet our wealth management clients' needs and will solidify our goal of bringing one-stop financial services to our region."

Patten was born and raised in Honesdale and continues to reside there with his wife, Heidi, and their son, Blake.

The Dime Bank has been helping customers meet their financial needs since 1905.
