

Mary Carol Hanis Graduates from PA Bankers Leadership Institute

Honesdale, PA / February 23, 2017 / Mary Carol Hanis, Vice President Retail Banking at The Dime Bank, recently graduated from an intensive one-year program as a member of the inaugural 2016-17 class of the Pennsylvania Bankers Leadership Institute, an initiative of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association (PA Bankers).

Hanis has served the banking industry since 1993 with an extensive background focused on business development, giving her a strong knowledge base to provide both traditional and non-traditional solutions for individuals and corporations alike. Hanis joined The Dime Bank in 2005 and is responsible for the administration and coordination of The Dime Bank's seven community offices to ensure consistent, quality service. She supervises, communicates with, and motivates the office managers at each branch to efficiently attain objectives set by senior management. Hanis also ensures each branch office is in compliance with bank policies and procedures.

Mary Carol Hanis holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communication from the University of Scranton and completed the Pennsylvania Bankers Association Central Advanced School of Banking. She lives in Peckville with her husband, Bob, and her two children.

The Dime Bank President and Chief Executive Officer Gary C. Beilman stated, "Mary Carol's position is a challenging one, requiring her to have an understanding of individual dynamics to form a strong team atmosphere. At The Dime Bank, we encourage continuous career learning to reinforce our employees' skills in this complex banking environment and we are proud of Mary Carol for strengthening our ranks with her increased knowledge."

The Pennsylvania Bankers Leadership Institute offers emerging and existing leaders highly personalized and interactive planning sessions specifically tailored to the banking industry. Throughout five two-day sessions, participants examined the correlation between organizational culture, performance, leadership, engagement and communication, ending with the development of an individualized Leadership Action Plan.

"We applaud The Dime Bank and Mary Carol Hanis for understanding the incredible value of this program," said Duncan Campbell, PA Bankers president & CEO. "It's not just of benefit to individual bank leaders and banks; the lessons learned throughout the program can also be applied collectively to help us prepare for the future of our industry."

The Pennsylvania Bankers Association is now accepting applications for the 2017-18 class, which begins in June. The Pennsylvania Bankers Association, located in Harrisburg, is the state's leading banking trade association representing an expansive and diverse membership. The Association offers extensive continuing education programs, government relations representation on behalf of the industry, and provides numerous products and services for banks and their employees.

The Dime Bank has been helping customers meet their financial needs since 1905. Serving its primary market of Northeast Pennsylvania, the bank offers a full array of financial services and solutions. Community banking yields community benefits. For more information on The Dime Bank, visit www.thedimebank.com. Member FDIC.

Source: The Dime Bank / February 23, 2017, Deborah Unflat