The Dime Bank Celebrates 110 Years!

Honesdale, PA/ November 27, 2015/ This year, December 16, 2015 marks The Dime Bank's 110th Anniversary. As a thank you to Dime Bank customers, friends, and communities, they are hosting a week-long open house celebration from December 14th through December 19th during business hours. They invite all to celebrate with them!

In 1905, a diverse group of people had a common vision to create a banking alternative for area residents. The Honesdale Dime Bank received its authority in the form of a Charter from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to begin operations on December 16, 1905, and opened its doors on January 2, 1906.

Gary C. Beilman, president and chief executive officer, enthused, "We are proud of our history and all of our accomplishments, and we look with optimism to the future. Important in the development of The Dime Bank was its simplistic, philosophic, and cultural outlook. For 110 years The Dime Bank has maintained the same principles of bringing our communities support and cultural enrichment while providing trusted, dependable banking along with the latest technological advances in the financial industry. Thank you for allowing us to be your trusted, dependable financial partner. I am excited to celebrate this wonderful milestone with you at our open house special event!"

Stop by The Dime Bank branches for coffee, cookies, and giveaways during the week of December 14-19, 2015. A short history brochure of The Dime Bank will be available. Be sure to enter for a chance to win a coin collector basket of America the Beautiful Uncirculated Quarter Sets with certificates of authenticity. No purchase necessary to win. See a customer service representative to enter or for full details. Sweepstakes ends December 19, 2015.

The Dime Bank has been helping customers meet their financial needs since 1905. Serving its primary market of Northeastern Pennsylvania, the bank offers a full array of financial services ranging from traditional products to electronic banking and wealth management services.
