

The Dime Bank Honored by the United Way

Honesdale, PA / May 7, 2018 / The Dime Bank recently received the United Way of Lackawanna and Wayne Counties (United Way) Platinum Hand Award in recognition of “superior commitment to the people of our community through corporate and employee giving.” The Platinum Hand Award is given to corporate donors who give in the upper 10th of the National Trade Group Average plus 5% over the prior year. In Wayne County alone, all employee and corporate contributions totaled over $125,000.00. Combine this with over $3 million raised in Lackawanna County, and the United Way was able to give a “hand up” to hundreds of agencies that help fight for better education, safety and overall health of our friends and neighbors. The mission of the United Way is to improve lives by mobilizing the caring power of communities around the world to advance the common good.

In addition to The Dime Bank’s recognition, the United Way announced that they have received the coveted Charity Navigator, 4-Star rating for the sixth consecutive year. Charity Navigator uses data-driven analysis to evaluate the charitable sector. UWL&WC is among only 6% of all charities evaluated to receive this distinction, due primarily to their transparency and efficiency of operations.

The Dime Bank has been helping customers meet their financial needs since 1905 and is dedicated to supporting our communities through the sponsorship of many different programs. Serving its primary market of Northeast Pennsylvania, the bank offers a full array of financial services and solutions. Community banking yields community benefits. For more information on The Dime Bank, visit www.thedimebank.com. Member FDIC, Equal Housing Lender.

Pictured left to right The Dime Bank officers: Tom Didato, Bill Boyle, Lisa Cavage, Paula Ralston Nenish, Jeff Roche, Mary Carol Hanis, Jill George.

Source: The Dime Bank/ May 7, 2018 / Deborah Unflat

