

The Dime Bank Donates to Wayne County Walk of Honor

Honesdale, PA / September 15, 2016 / The Dime Bank is proud to be a part of the Wayne County Walk of Honor by donating $1,500.00 to the Wayne County Business and Professional Women (WCBPW) who are building a memorial on land granted for the conditional use of the memorial by Wayne County. The memorial is dedicated to remembering deceased service members that are buried in Wayne County or who were born in Wayne County and buried in a national cemetery.

The project is expected to include 14 podiums with the names of the deceased veterans and the cemetery where they are interred, an eight-foot center monument bearing the military insignias of all branches, and a podium will display a map of Wayne County with a key designating the location of the various cemeteries.

The official opening of the monument will take place with appropriate ceremonies on November 11, 2016 at 11:00 AM at 921 Court Street, Honesdale PA. All are welcome to attend. If you would like to check if a loved one is listed or for more information on the project, please visit <http://walkofhonor.wixsite.com/waynecounty>.

Pictured here on the Walk of Honor are left to right: Gary Beilman, President and Chief Executive Officer The Dime Bank; Ginny Motsko, Reception Committee Walk of Honor; Rochelle Haviland, WCBPW member; Julia Castek, Hardscaping Committee Walk of Honor; Maureen Beilman, Chief Financial Officer The Dime Bank; Ruth Daniels, Vice President The Dime Bank and WCBPW member.

As an independent community bank, The Dime Bank has been helping customers meet their financial needs since 1905. Serving its primary market of Northeast Pennsylvania, the bank offers a full array of financial services and solutions. Community banking yields community benefits. For more information on The Dime Bank, visit www.thedimebank.com.

Source: The Dime Bank / September 15, 2016 / Deborah Unflat